

Entrance Antiphon Ps 53: 6,8

See, I have God for my help.
The Lord sustains my soul.
I will sacrifice to you with willing heart,
and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

Collect
Show favour, O Lord, to your servants and mercifully increase the gifts of your grace,
that, made fervent in hope, faith and charity,
they may be ever watchful in keeping your commands.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever.

First reading Jeremiah 23:1-6

‘Doom for the shepherds who allow the flock of my pasture to be destroyed and scattered – it is the Lord who speaks! This, therefore, is what the Lord, the God of Israel, says about the shepherds in charge of my people: You have let my flock be scattered and go wandering and have not taken care of them.

Right, I will take care of you for your misdeeds – it is the Lord who speaks! But the remnant of my flock I myself will gather from all the countries where I have dispersed them, and will bring them back to their pastures: they shall be fruitful and increase in numbers. I will raise up shepherds to look after them and pasture them; no fear, no terror for them any more; not one shall be lost – it is the Lord who speaks!

‘See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will raise a virtuous Branch for David, who will reign as true king and be wise, practising honesty and integrity in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel dwell in confidence. And this is the name he will be called: The-Lord-our-integrity.’

Responsorial Psalm Ps 22:1-6

The Lord is my shepherd: there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. R

He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. R

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R

Second reading Ephesians 2:13-18

In Christ Jesus, you that used to be so far apart from us have been brought very close, by the blood of Christ. For he is the peace between us, and has made the two into one and broken down the barrier which used to keep them apart, actually destroying in his own person the hostility caused by the rules and decrees of the Law. This was to create one single New Man in himself out of the two of them and by restoring peace through the cross, to unite them both in a single Body and reconcile them with God: in his own person he killed the hostility. Later he came to bring the good news of peace, peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near at hand. Through him, both of us have in the one Spirit our way to come to the Father.

Gospel Acclamation Jn 10:27

Alleluia, alleluia!
The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice,
says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 6:30-34

The apostles rejoined Jesus and told him all they had done and taught. Then he said to them, ‘You must come away to some lonely place all by yourselves and rest for a while’; for there were so many coming and going that the apostles had no time even to eat. So they went off in a boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But people saw them going, and many could guess where; and from every town they all hurried to the place on foot and reached it before them. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he set himself to teach them at some length.

Prayer over the Offerings
O God, who in the one perfect sacrifice brought to completion varied offerings of the law, accept, we pray, this sacrifice from your faithful servants and make it holy, as you blessed the gifts of Abel, so that what each has offered to the honour of your majesty may benefit the salvation of all.
Through Christ our Lord.

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 110:4-5

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders;
he gives food to those who fear him.

Prayer after Communion
Graciously be present to your people, we pray, O Lord, and lead those you have imbued with heavenly mysteries to pass from former ways to newness of life.
Through Christ our Lord.

The 'Fro Has To Go

An interview with Andres Hernandez about his experience with the youth pilgrimages.

Q: This will be your sixth Youth Pilgrimage. Why did you decide to go in the first place?

A: I liked the idea of going to Ireland, meeting new people and having an adventure.

Q: What has been your most memorable event?

A: Going to Poland in 2016 for World Youth Day. It was amazing to go to the field where we celebrated Mass with the Pope along with 1-2 million others. I enjoyed talking to people and seeing how far everyone traveled to be there for their faith and to celebrate Mass.

Q: How have these trips helped you grow in your faith?

A: I was 15 when I first went and I had gone to confession only once. I was given the opportunity to grow and think deeper about my faith because it is a time set apart from normal life. I made good friends to help me to continue to grow in my faith when I came home. These pilgrimages have also helped me to appreciate things in my life, like my family, friends, house... even my bed! While climbing the mountains, I was even inspired by other pilgrims who were climbing barefoot; something I had never seen before. Those mountains were hard to climb, but were well worth it with the amazing peace we found at the top.

Q: What were the challenges?

A: It was hard to pray every day. I had to learn how to say the Hail Mary and, at the beginning, when it came time to say the rosary, we were all falling asleep! By the end of the pilgrimage though we were actually enjoying it. Patience was also challenging when other teens didn't want to go to sleep after a long day. It was also difficult for me to transition from being a youth to a youth leader. More responsibility... but worth it!

Q: What have you learned about being a leader?

A: Lots of planning! It's also more fulfilling because you can help the teens grow in their faith and share your own life experience with them. You see them change during the course of their pilgrimage.

Q: How would you encourage a teen to go?

A: The pilgrimages are different from other trips you might go on. You will grow in your faith, see different cultures, make lasting friendships (even if you are shy like me), and appreciate the life you have now. The trips are reminders of why we have our faith and that God is always with us. Even if we have fallen away from the faith during the year- it is a time of renewal. You will remember these pilgrimages for life.

Q: What can you say to all the benefactors?

A: Thank you so much for helping us go! When you are investing in these teens, you are putting money into forming our future church. Thank you for providing for us and supporting us. Without your help a lot of the youth would not be able to go- especially those families that have more than one teen going. It really is money well spent.

Q: Andres, it is very kind of you to have a fundraiser to cut your hair. Are you ready to lose your locks?

A: No... but the youth and other leaders have convinced me it's worth it. And if I were looking for a reason to do it, it would be hard to find a better one.
