

Entrance Antiphon Ps 69: 2,6

O God, come to my assistance;
O lord, make haste to help me!
You are my rescuer, my help;
O Lord, do not delay.

First reading Exodus 16:2-4,12-15

The whole community of the sons of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness and said to them, 'Why did we not die at the Lord's hand in the land of Egypt, when we were able to sit down to pans of meat and could eat bread to our heart's content! As it is, you have brought us to this wilderness to starve this whole company to death!'

Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now I will rain down bread for you from the heavens. Each day the people are to go out and gather the day's portion; I propose to test them in this way to see whether they will follow my law or not.'

'I have heard the complaints of the sons of Israel. Say this to them, "Between the two evenings you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have bread to your heart's content. Then you will learn that I, the Lord, am your God."'

And so it came about: quails flew up in the evening, and they covered the camp; in the morning there was a coating of dew all round the camp. When the coating of dew lifted, there on the surface of the desert was a thing delicate, powdery, as fine as hoarfrost on the ground. When they saw this, the sons of Israel said to one another, 'What is that?' not knowing what it was. 'That' said Moses to them 'is the bread the Lord gives you to eat.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 77(78):3-4,23-25,54

The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

The things we have heard and understood,
the things our fathers have told us,
we will tell them to the next generation:
the glories of the Lord and his might. R

He commanded the clouds above and opened the gates of heaven.
He rained down manna for their food,
and gave them bread from heaven. R

Mere men ate the bread of angels.
He sent them abundance of food;
He brought them to his holy land,
to the mountain which his right hand had won. R

Second reading Ephesians 4:17,20-24

I want to urge you in the name of the Lord, not to go on living the aimless kind of life that pagans live. Now that is hardly the way you have learnt from Christ, unless you failed to hear him properly when you were taught what the truth is in Jesus. You must give up your old way of life; you must put aside your old self, which gets corrupted by following illusory desires.

Your mind must be renewed by a spiritual revolution so that you can put on the new self that has been created in God's way, in the goodness and holiness of the truth.

Gospel Acclamation Jn14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord;
No one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

Gospel John 6:24-35

When the people saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into boats and crossed to Capernaum to look for Jesus. When they found him on the other side, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, you are not looking for me because you have seen the signs but because you had all the bread you wanted to eat. Do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on him the Father, God himself, has set his seal.'

Then they said to him, 'What must we do if we are to do the works that God wants?' Jesus gave them this answer, 'This is working for God: you must believe in the one he has sent.' So they said, 'What sign will you give to show us that we should believe in you? What work will you do? Our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: He gave them bread from heaven to eat.' Jesus answered:

'I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread; for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' 'Sir,' they said 'give us that bread always.' Jesus answered: 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst.'

Good News Weekly

One of the most encouraging developments in the universal Church in the fifty years since Vatican II has been the spread and growth of Eucharistic Adoration in parishes, schools and communities.

This led Pope Benedict to remark that "today there is a 'Eucharistic springtime' in the Church. How many people pause in silence before the Tabernacle to engage in a loving conversation with Jesus!"

He continued: "It is comforting to know that many groups of young people have rediscovered the beauty of praying in adoration before the Most Blessed Sacrament. I pray that this Eucharistic 'springtime' may spread increasingly in every parish."

In the time before Vatican II, Eucharistic Adoration and Benediction were often regarded as devotional exercises, whilst in the period after the Council, as St. John Paul II said, Eucharistic Adoration stems from the Sacrifice of the Mass itself, as its natural extension and as an "important daily exercise that becomes an inexhaustible source of holiness."

Just as in the Mass, Christians worship God and join themselves to Christ in His self - offering to the Father through the Holy Spirit, so too the worship of God in the Mass continues in silent wonder, prayer and adoration in Eucharistic Exposition.

One naturally leads to the other, the Mass to Adoration. We honour and adore the Real Presence of Jesus in the celebration of the Mass and, as Blessed Paul VI put it, we desire frequently to visit Him afterwards as "a proof of gratitude, an expression of love, a duty of adoration."

The Marriage Course is a series of seven sessions, designed for couples who are seeking to strengthen their relationship and build a strong marriage. The course starts on Wednesday 28th September, and ends on 31st October.

Some couples do the course to intentionally invest in their relationship; others are looking to address more specific challenges. Either way, the course offers essential tools and practical ideas to help you build a relationship that lasts a lifetime.

On the Marriage Course you are seated at your own table for two. Each course is unique, but usually every session will include food, a practical talk and time for private discussion between you and your partner. You never share anything about your relationship with anyone other than your partner.

This course is open to all married couples.
