

Entrance Antiphon

Ps 94: 6-7

O come, let us worship God
and bow low before the God who made us,
for he is the Lord our God.

First reading

Isaiah 6:1-2,3-8

'Here I am: send me'

In the year of King Uzziah's death I saw the Lord of Hosts seated on a high throne; his train filled the sanctuary; above him stood seraphs, each one with six wings.

And they cried out to one another in this way,

'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts.
His glory fills the whole earth.'

The foundations of the threshold shook with the voice of the one who cried out, and the Temple was filled with smoke. I said:

'What a wretched state I am in! I am lost,
for I am a man of unclean lips
and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have looked at the King, the Lord of Hosts.'

Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding in his hand a live coal which he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. With this he touched my mouth and said:

'See now, this has touched your lips,
your sin is taken away,
your iniquity is purged.'

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying:

'Whom shall I send? Who will be our messenger?'

I answered, 'Here I am, send me.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 137(138):1-5,7-8

Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart:
you have heard the words of my mouth.
In the presence of the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple. R

I thank you for your faithfulness and love,
which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul. R

All earth's kings shall thank you when they hear the words of your mouth.
They shall sing of the Lord's ways:
'How great is the glory of the Lord!' R

You stretch out your hand and save me,
your hand will do all things for me.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands. R

Second reading

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I preached what the others preach, and you all believed

Brothers, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, the gospel that you received and in which you are firmly established; because the gospel will save you only if you keep believing exactly what I preached to you – believing anything else will not lead to anything.

Well then, in the first place, I taught you what I had been taught myself, namely that Christ died for our sins, in accordance with the scriptures; that he was buried; and that he was raised to life on the third day, in accordance with the scriptures; that he appeared first to Cephas and secondly to the Twelve. Next he appeared to more than five hundred of the brothers at the same time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died; then he appeared to James, and then to all the apostles; and last of all he appeared to me too; it was as though I was born when no one expected it.

I am the least of the apostles; in fact, since I persecuted the Church of God, I hardly deserve the name apostle; but by God's grace that is what I am, and the grace that he gave me has not been fruitless. On the contrary, I, or rather the grace of God that is with me, have worked harder than any of the others; but what matters is that I preach what they preach, and this is what you all believed.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn15:15

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 5:1-11

They left everything and followed him

Jesus was standing one day by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing round him listening to the word of God, when he caught sight of two boats close to the bank. The fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats – it was Simon's – and asked him to put out a little from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat.

When he had finished speaking he said to Simon, 'Put out into deep water and pay out your nets for a catch.' 'Master,' Simon replied, 'we worked hard all night long and caught nothing, but if you say so, I will pay out the nets.' And when they had done this they netted such a huge number of fish that their nets began to tear, so they signalled to their companions in the other boat to come and help them; when these came, they filled the two boats to sinking point.

When Simon Peter saw this he fell at the knees of Jesus saying, 'Leave me, Lord; I am a sinful man.' For he and all his companions were completely overcome by the catch they had made; so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were Simon's partners. But Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on it is men you will catch.' Then, bringing their boats back to land, they left everything and followed him.

Communion Antiphon

Cf. Ps 106: 8-9

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men,
for he satisfies the thirsty soul,
and the hungry he fills with good things.

COULD IT BE TIME TO STRETCH YOUR FAITH?

During my experience with Alpha, the Lord completely stretched my faith in ways I never could have imagined. I entered the course not expecting to learn much, as I felt my faith was already strong, and already had a good understanding of what it meant to be a good Catholic.

However, every week taught me something new about myself. I realized that the Lord was calling me to serve him in many ways to which my answer was often "No Lord! Are you crazy!" My response quickly changed to a frequent and confident, "Yes Lord!"

In the hectic life of being a mother of three young children, taking this time to focus on my relationship with God gave me the confidence to surrender myself completely to his will, which has allowed me to become a better wife, mother, and Catholic. My favourite part about Alpha was getting to know and love the people in my small group. Sharing this experience together helped us become closer as a family of faith, not to mention- FOOD WAS FABULOUS!

Alpha was a joyous experience and strengthened my faith by bringing me "back to the basics of my faith". You know that saying: "Everything you need to know about life you learned in Nursery School?" Well, that is how I felt about Alpha. The message of Alpha is pure and simple: God is love. We need to know Him. He loves us. He loves me and He wants us to be joyful and share His love.

Alpha is an inclusive message about forgiveness and acceptance. It shows you how to live your normal, everyday life with a sense of purpose and knowledge that no matter what you do, you can do it with God by your side.

It's a spiritual experience in a fun and accepting environment. You will make new friends and feel joy by sharing with your "table group". You will learn about yourself and deepen your relationship with God, and if you feel that you do not have a relationship with God, this may be the start. I hope to meet you at Alpha soon!

OFFERTORY & GIVING THANK YOU
Thanks again for those who have responded to the giving challenge made in October/November. Whilst there has been a marked increase in the value of giving unfortunately there is still a negative gap between income received and actual running costs. Recently a Scottish Bishop suggested that "if parishioners attending Mass would put an additional £1 each per person per week it would significantly help". Would you please give consideration to increasing your Offertory donations by £1 per week or whatever you may be able to afford. Thank you.

MASS INTENTION ENVELOPES
Available at the back of the Church. Print details and post through Clergy House letter box. Sunday 11:15 Mass is normally reserved for the Administrator's or Bishop's Intentions for the Parish or Diocese. It may not always be possible for Mass to be celebrated on your preferred date or at the Cathedral itself.
