

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 47:10-11

Your merciful love, O God,
We have received in the midst
Of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
Reaches the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled
With saving justice

First reading Ezekiel 2:2-5

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, ‘Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, “The Lord says this.” Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.’

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 122(123)

Our eyes are on the Lord till he shows us his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes,
you who dwell in the heavens;
my eyes, like the eyes of slaves
on the hand of their lords. R

Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of her mistress,
so our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he show us his mercy. R

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.
Indeed all too full is our soul
with the scorn of the rich,
with the proud man’s disdain. R

Second reading 2 Corinthians 12:7-10

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, ‘My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.’ So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ’s sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

Gospel Acclamation Jn1:14,12

Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh and lived among us:
to all who did accept him
he gave power to become children of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 6:1-6

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, ‘Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?’ And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, ‘A prophet is only despised in his own country, among his own relations and in his own house’; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

Communion Antiphon Ps 33:9

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
Blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Prayer after Communion

Grant, we pray, O Lord,
that, having been replenished
by such great gifts,
we may gain the prize of salvation
and never cease to praise you.
Through Christ our Lord.

SEA SUNDAY - APOSTLESHIP OF THE SEA

PRAY FOR SEAFARERS

Seafarers are extremely important to this country. We don’t usually see it but 95% of everything we use, comes in by ship. That’s the food we eat, the clothes we wear, our phones, our cars, just about everything.

Andrew Campbell a volunteer ship visitor for the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS) in the Port of Bristol, Avonmouth shared this story of his ministry:

‘Just before Christmas I was visiting a ship in Avonmouth. I talked to the Filipino captain and some of the crew. I handed over some shoe boxes, filled with donated gifts that I had brought with me. They stored them away, ready to give out on Christmas day when they would be at sea.

I was struck by how poor and needy the crew seemed and how grateful they were for those boxes. The ship sailed for Seville on 23rd December.

About three weeks later the AoS port chaplain received a phone call from the Filipino captain. His ship was drifting in the Atlantic off the coast of Spain. They had cut the engines to save fuel. They were short of food and water and had basically been abandoned by the ship’s owners who had gone bankrupt. They had not been paid for more than three months. The captain had kept the chaplain’s telephone number and had rung him to see if he could help.’

The Apostleship of the Sea in Great Britain contacted their colleagues in Spain who liaised with the Spanish Authorities who allowed the ship to dock and the ship’s crew were looked after. Eventually they were all repatriated to the Philippines.’

This is NOT an unusual story. The Apostleship of the Sea is in all major ports, not only here in Aberdeen but throughout the world. AoS is often called on to give similar help to seafarers.

Port Chaplain, Doug Duncan who was ordained to the Permanent Diaconate on Friday 6th July

A seafarers’ pay is very low by UK standards. They work shifts, seven days a week for up to nine months. They send most of their money home to support their families. They do get rest time but can you imagine working every day, without a weekend or day off for nine months? And all this time they are far away from their family and loved ones.

A ship visit from the AoS means seeing a friendly face, someone to talk to. The AoS provides seafarers with help to get ashore to the local shops, get warm clothing in winter, faith resources to sustain their faith and, when possible, help to get them to Mass.

Closer to Home: In 216/2017, Doug Duncan, at that time Aberdeen port Chaplain for Catholic charity AoS, organised extensive support for the stranded crew of the MV Malaviya Seven who had to spend many months in Aberdeen.
